

New York – April 2019

So happy to go after 2 years spent organising fund-raising actions

On the plane

At the airport

A nice welcome party on our arrival

Ellis Island and Liberty Island

Our first visit

Ellis Island, the Wall of Honor

Try your luck, maybe you'll find your family's name among the 775,000 names of immigrants

Wall Street

New York Stock Exchange

Wall Street is one of the largest trading centers in the world. Most of the global investments are done in this small district

Trinity's church

The World famous bull of Wall street

One World Trade center

Also known as Freedom Tower, built after the 9/11 terrorist attack. It is the tallest skyscraper of New York

Views from 1 WTC

Views from 1 WTC

It is a perfect place to go if you want to buy something :
Many shops are there and of all sorts! (clothes, beers, organic food...)
There are also restaurants to have a rest.

This mall is a former Oreo factory and created in the 1890's

Chelsea
Market

High Line

There, you can admire the view and enjoy !

A former line where a train used to pass

Rockefeller center

A family project, The Rockefellers, immigrants from Germany who have dedicated their lives to philanthropy. 19 buildings in total.

Bushwick offers lots of murals, which are painted by street artists.
They give a colorful touch and show some unknown talents.

Street Art of « Bushwick »

Bushwick

At Ground Zero

The Octopus

9/11 Memorial

9/11 Memorial

- On each victim's birthday, an official comes and puts a white rose near their names. This is done every day

Macy's, a mall with lots of decorations, mostly flowers

Here, we can find many shops, like clothes shops, perfumes, make-up or others.

Macy's is one of the largest department stores in the world, The Americans say. It takes almost a whole block of buildings, which is enormous. It was opened in 1858

- Macy's is also famous for its old escalators built in the 1920's, mainly made of oak.
- You'll have to walk through the mall to find them

Times Square

Times Square is a beautiful place, an illuminated, dynamic spot with a lot of people and screens.

Essex Street Academy

Classes of ESA

ESA is composed of 200 students

The amphitheater

In a science class

Wall Street

The Fearless Girl, a symbol of women's empowerment

The Charging Bull, a symbol of Optimism and fierce financial activities on the Stock Exchange

Grand Central Station

It looks like a huge porch and works like an acoustic arch. You stick your face right up against the corner and you whisper something. You can be heard on the opposite side by your friend. Magic in such a busy place!

The Whispering Gallery

The Public Library was built at the end of the 19th century. It has spread into the 2nd largest public library network in the USA. It holds millions of books

The Public Library, The main hall and a reading room

Central Park

Strawberry Field, a tribute to John Lennon

The UNO

We visited conference rooms. On the walls of the main hallway, we could read boards showing economic, political, social and military facts on the world

The UNO

We the People, Norman Rockwell

A huge mural by Jose Vela Zanetti, a Spanish painter, depicting Man's struggle for peace from destruction to reconstruction of the world

Coney Island

Luna Park and its Wonder Wheel, opened in 1920

Partly destroyed by a fire in 1944, it was re-opened in 2010. This is why you can find old-fashioned with modern attractions and rides in a happy hodgepodge

Coney Island is located in the south west of the borough of Brooklyn. In the 20th century, Coney Island beaches were THE place to go on Sundays

One last photo before leaving our American friends

